

WORD OF THE WEEK

The Subject: Pride

James 4:6 – God resisteth the proud but giveth grace to the humble.

proud - Greek: huperephanos meaning to appear above others
- from:

huper – over and above

phaino – lighten, shine, appear or be seen resisteth – antitassomai – originally a military term in Greek meaning “to rage in battle against” or “to make war with”

Men who are proud love to appear and “shine above others” with their material possessions, awards, credentials and positions, money, numbers, etc. They love to lift themselves up and be recognized above the crowd taking the glory for self when the Word of God says that all glory (honor or praise) belongs to God. God will not acquit this wickedness. God will set himself to war against such men and women who raise themselves up to be seen above others.
